PROCTORIAL NOTES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF GRADUANDS

Procedure and Presentation: Degrees are conferred at Congregations that are held in the Senate House. No-one may graduate, either in person or in absence, until their degree has been approved by the Regent House. Degrees honoris causa (honorary degrees) are usually conferred only at special Congregations. Candidates for the higher degrees of DD, LLD, MD, LittD, ScD, MusD, BD, VetMD and MChir are presented at the beginning of each Congregation by specially appointed persons, as are non-collegiate candidates for Incorporation or for the MA degree under Statute B III 6. Other graduands are then presented by C
